Minutes of the August 22, 2025 meeting were approved.

Treasurer's Report

- Jim reported that the bank balance is $3,09.93 and there are 71 paid members.

Old/Closed Business

Open

- We are proceeding with the "Open House" for all QC residents for October 18th from 11-1. All Board members should be present and, if possible, be wearing a QCBC shirt. [Action] Mary will rework the "What's Happening" article and send it to Jerry, Jim and Kay for comments.
- Mary and Kay presented an outline for the Orientation class. This is attached to these minutes.
- Mary said that she contacted a new member about Orientation, but he has not responded to her emails.
- [Action] Mary will create an article for November's issue of "The Crossings" after the Open House on Oct. 18th. The article will include pictures taken during the Open House.
- Regarding the cue case and cues left in the room, Dennis has decided to send out two more emails to the membership in October and November. He will also post a "Lost Item" on the QCBC bulletin board.
- We will discuss the details of the annual Pizza Party at our October meeting.
- Dennis has contacted a local mechanic to do the table leveling. This will be done on December 3, 2025 from 9-12. The Estimated cost is $160-$240. [Action] Dennis will provide Jim with the name of the mechanic.
- Jim provided a printout of several avenues we could pursue in the future for training and materials. These are listed below in the "Tabled Items". The complete printout detailing each item is attached to the minutes.
